You can take part in 1 or more sessions:

- 1) 3.5 and below group clinic - Cost: $50 per person
- 2) 4.0+ clinic - Cost: $50 per person
- 3) Small Group Lesson with clinician of your choice – Cost: $50 per person
- 4) Open Play with In Game Coaching – Cost: $45 per person

Pricing is based on which option(s) you choose: For example, if take part in a group clinic and a small group lesson, the cost would be $50 + $60 = $110 per person.

The cost is payable on PayPal to kasandramariepickleball@gmail.com and must be paid prior to the clinic to reserve your spot. Unpaid reservations will not be honored. No refunds.

Options 1 and 2: Group Clinics by Skill Level $50 each per person. These are run by both clinicians. Maximum of 24 participants.

Group clinics are larger classes that work on a specific set of skills for 2 hours. You will receive tips and strategies from both clinicians in a large group setting. Full details are on the front of flier of what skills are covered for each clinic.

Option 3: Small Group Lessons $50 per person.

*Please note at sign up which clinician you would like the private lesson with.

You bring your own group of 3-4 players and receive private coaching from one (you pick Dave or KaSandra) of the clinicians. This is more directed to specific skills and strategies that you would specifically like to work on, with the privacy of a small group setting. See times available listed below.

Option 4: Open Play with In Game Coaching $45.00 per person. These are run by both clinicians.

This is a smaller group than a large clinic (8-12 people), where you will receive tips from both clinicians on your play. Clinicians will watch live play of your game and help dissect points and teach proper team strategies. See times available listed below.

A minimum of 25 participants is required for any of these clinics to take place.
